What Is Youth Protection Training?

We seek to create as safe an environment as possible for young people to enjoy our program's activities. The Boy Scouts of America Youth Protection training addresses strategies for personal safety awareness for youth as well as adults. Age-appropriate programs and DVD materials include:

- Youth Protection Guidelines: Training for Volunteer Leaders and Parents—Adults come away with a much clearer awareness of the kinds of abuse, the signs of abuse, and how to respond and report should a situation arise. Youth Protection training must be taken every two years.
- Youth Protection Guidelines: Training for Adult Venturing Leaders—Designed to give guidance to the leaders in our teenage coed Venturing program. Supervision and relationship issues have a different focus regarding personal safety with this age group. Youth Protection training must be taken every two years.
- It Happened to Me—Developed for Cub Scout-age boys from 6 to 10 years old and their parents. It addresses the four rules of personal safety: Check first, go with a friend, it's your body, and tell.
- A Time to Tell—A video for Boy Scout-age boys from 11 to 14 years old—the target group for most molesters. It stresses the three R's of youth protection: Recognize, Resist, and Report.
- Youth Protection: Personal Safety Awareness—Developed for youth ages 13 through 20 in the coeducational Venturing program. It deals with issues pertinent to this age group.

Youth Protection training is available online at www.MyScouting.org. You can establish an account there using the member number you receive when you register. If you take the online training before you receive a member number, be sure to return to MyScouting and enter your number for training record credit.

The Boy Scouts of America has Youth Protection policies to protect youth, and these same policies help protect adult volunteers.

These and other key policies are addressed in the training:

Two-deep leadership—There must always be at least two adults on all trips and outings.

No One-on-One Contact—One-on-one contact between adults and youth members is not permitted.

Respecting Privacy—Adult leaders must respect the privacy of youth members and their own privacy in situations such as changing clothes or using restroom and shower facilities.

Separate accommodations—No youth is permitted in the tent or room of an adult other than their own parent or guardian.

Reporting problems—All violations of the law and BSA policies are to be reported as directed in the BSA's Guide to Safe Scouting and other BSA policy materials.

Adults must follow the policies and insist others always follow them.

ScoutParents has been designed to increase youth and parent recruitment, retention, advancement, participation, dedication, and a passion for Scouting. Your involvement and commitment is essential to the success of your child's Scouting experience. We encourage the parents (guardians) for each child to:

1. Participate with them.
2. Go to and observe their meetings.
3. Be part of their unit's program—both weekly meetings and outings.
4. Support the program financially.
5. Coach them on their advancement and earning of recognition awards.
6. Help in at least one support role during the year.
7. Take Youth Protection training (available online).
